The Conventions.

Last Thursday the State Committee met in Jacksonville and designated P. A. Jones as the place and the 25th of June as the day for the meeting of the State Democratic Convention. There was no opposition to Pensacola, and doubtless the action of the Committee in making the selection is generally satisfactory to the Democracy throughout the State. The subject of the Convention is under discussion here (noted as indicative of the majority feeling), but it is quite unnecessary to repeat the reasons here for the selection of Pensacola as the place for the coming year. It is well to select Pensacola. (Obviously they were not very many who were not.) It was presented to the Committee by an influential delegation from Pensacola. This is the only reason for the selection, but that fair favor for hospitality is well known to all. It is the opinion of the Superintendent of Highways of the P. A. A. that it is not worth the expense of travel to and from the seaport of the West—Florida.

The following table gives the number of delegates to be sent from each county or area of land when set in regular rows to the Convention in the next:
